

About Rebecca

REBECCA PRICE JANNEY is a historian and multi-award-winning author of twenty-six books, including her beloved Easton Series, Sweet, Sweet Spirit: One Woman's Spiritual Journey to the Asbury College Revival, and Morning Glory: A Novel of the First Great Awakening. Look for her latest book, East of the Sun, a novel about the Korean War.

She began writing professionally at the age of fourteen and by the following year was covering the Philadelphia Phillies. With her love of American history, she earned degrees in that subject from Lafayette College and Princeton Seminary, as well as a doctorate from Biblical Seminary. Her dissertation was about the role of women in the Protestant Church and society from the beginning to the end of the 20th century.

Rebecca is a popular speaker at historical and lineage societies, conferences, retreats, schools, libraries, and churches. She is regularly interviewed on radio shows and blogs and has her own podcast, "American Stories." She resides with her husband, son, and Cavalier King Charles Spaniel in Pennsylvania's Lehigh Valley where her ancestors have lived since the 1740s. She has a passion for - "Encouraging History!"

Rebecca's Most Popular Topics

- America's Founding Generation
- Women and the Revolution
- Flying Camps in the American Revolution
- The Founders and Slavery
- Important events and inspiration from U.S. History
- American Revivals
- Profiles of Great Americans
- Book Talks Related to Her Fiction and Nonfiction Works
- The Importance of Knowing the Past for Families, and Nations
- 19th Century American Reform Movements
- Cultural Histories of The American Family; Heaven and Hell
- Postmodernism
- America's Unique Relationship with Israel
- The Writing Life
- Women's Retreats to Go Deeper Spiritually
- Writer's conferences - Writing Historically

Rebecca charges from $150-300 depending on the event, and she brings books to sell. For more information, contact her at: rebecca@rebeccapricejanney.com

If you're an aspiring author and would like Rebecca to review your project and offer input, please email her with information about your project including your title, target audience, purpose for writing it, and if you've had anything published. Her charge for a one-hour critique is $150.

Rudos

“ Rebecca Price Janney has a unique way of combining heart-warming stories with historical accuracy ”

Arch Hunter, Director of Graduate Programs, Freedoms Foundation

“ Rebecca is a beautiful storyteller ”

Brooke Mitman, Founder, Restoration Media

“ In her signature way, Rebecca seamlessly weaves stories of past and present into a compelling, cohesive story, rich with historical detail ”

Marlo Schalesky, Author of Women of the Bible Speak Out